

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—Friday, June 8, 2001

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

Lord God, on Capitol Hill today two graduations will take place: the graduation of the pages of this House and the graduation ceremonies for recruit officers of the Capitol Police.

Because these are important steps for these people whom we have come to know and respect, we ask that You be with them, bless their endeavors and give joy to their families and colleagues who celebrate with them today.

These events put us in touch, Lord, with the variety of graduates across this country at this time of year.

May all who complete training or graduate from studies to higher learning or who will seek employment in this Nation know that You are with them in this time of transition. Give them Your grace to realize their full potential and give You glory.

Bless this Congress as it seeks to improve the equality, inclusivity and quality of education.

May this Nation, because its citizens are better informed, specially trained and broadly educated with moral character, become a stronger democracy for tomorrow.

"The beginning of wisdom is fear of the Lord." Amen.
